Beginner Horse Camp

June 26-29, 2012

9:00a.m. - 3:00p.m.

Information about Beginner Horse Camp

Date: June 26 - 29, 2012

Time: 9:00 - 3:00

Price: $330

Ages: 4-12

Rider limit: Maximum of 8 riders

This camp is intended for the younger rider who would like to improve and strengthen their skills in the walk, trot, canter. The riding groups will be split according to experience.

All riders will spend many hours a day in the saddle as well playing educational games and fun crafts. Each rider will learn how to care for their horse during camp.

There will be a horse show on the last day of camp that we will be preparing for. This is a great time for the riders to show their parents what they have learned at camp.

This camp will be fun and enjoyable as the students learn about horse care and management as well as working hard on their riding.

Warning: This camp will be tons of fun with intense learning, so those who come to this camp should be ready for an action packed week.

Multiple Camp Discount: If a rider participates in more than one camp they will receive $25 off of their second camp

Items to Bring Each Day:

Bag lunch
SEI/ASTM approved helmet
Boots with heel
Lots of energy

 snacks and drinks will be provided*

Tentative Schedule for the Week

Day One: Morning - flat work
Afternoon - flat work

Day Two: Morning - flat work
Afternoon - flat work

Day Three: Morning - flat work
Afternoon - trail ride

Day Four: Morning - flat work then show prep
Afternoon - horse show

In between morning and afternoon riding sessions will be lunch and games/crafts. Riders will also learn: Safety with horses, practical horse care, how to get a horse ready for a show, and much more.

* There is limited stabling available so if you want to bring your horse register early before it fills up.

* There are also a limited number of HSS lesson horses available, so if you want to use one of ours please make sure to sign up early.
